Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company’s leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company’s strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company’s values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board of Scicom (MSC) Berhad (“Scicom” or the “Company”) assumes ultimate accountability and responsibility for the performance and affairs of the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the “Group”) and provides leadership for overall direction for the Group. The Board sets the strategic direction and monitoring the implementation of that strategy by the management team. The Board is responsible for delivering shareholders value over the long term, through the Group’s culture, strategy, values and governance. During the financial year ended 30 June 2024 (“FY 2024”), the Group’s business plan, budget and management proposal were presented to the Board during Board meetings. The Board reviewed, discussed and approved Management’s proposals and recommendations after thoughtful consideration of long-term value creation, and ethical business practices. This strategic process enables the Management to execute their tasks effectively and plan the utilisation of resources efficiently. The Board plays a critical role in setting the appropriate tone at the top and is charged with leading and managing the Group in an effective, good governance and ethical manner. The Board, together with the Senior Management Team (“SMT”), strive to promote an engaging corporate culture within the Group. The Board, through thoughtful consideration, deliberated on the feasibility and practicality of adopting and implementing corporate governance best practices in the Company vis-à-vis the relevant regulatory requirements during the FY 2024.

	In discharging its responsibilities, the Board had established an Audit and Risk Management Committee (“ARMC”) (separated into Audit Committee (“AC”), and Risk and Sustainability Committee (“RSC”) effective 26 September 2023) and a Nominating and Remuneration Committee (“NRC”) and delegated specific duties to the respective Board Committees according to their Terms of Reference to assist the Board to perform certain of its function and to provide recommendations and advice to the Board. The Board retains the ultimate responsibility for final decision on all matter lies with the Board. The roles and responsibilities of the Board are set out in the Board Charter. The roles and responsibilities of the Board Committees in discharging their functions delegated by the Board are set out in their respective Terms of Reference. The Board Charter and the Terms of Reference of the Board Committees namely, AC, NRC and RSC are available on the Company’s website at www.scicom-intl.com.

Practice 4.5- Step Up

The board identifies a designated person within management, to provide dedicated focus to manage sustainability strategically, including the integration of sustainability considerations in the operations of the company.

Note: The explanation on adoption of this practice should include a brief description of the responsibilities of the designated person and actions or measures undertaken pursuant to the role in the financial year.

Application	:	Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:	The Board and RSC are supported by SC chaired by the CEO. The CEO provides dedicated focus to manage sustainability strategically, including the integration of sustainability considerations in the operations of the Company. The CEO is the key point of contact for the Board and external stakeholders with regard to the Company's sustainability initiatives. He also leads internal stakeholders by chairing the SC and setting the tone on environmental, social and corporate governance (ESG) culture and commitment.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.1

The Nomination Committee should ensure that the composition of the board is refreshed periodically. The tenure of each director should be reviewed by the Nomination Committee and annual re-election of a director should be contingent on satisfactory evaluation of the director’s performance and contribution to the board.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The NRC is responsible for overseeing and reviewing the overall composition of the Board in terms of size, the required mix of skills, experience, and other qualities and core competencies for the directors of the Company. The NRC will review the tenure of each director periodically. The re-election of Directors is recommended by the NRC to the Board for shareholders’ approval, after a satisfactory evaluation of the retiring Director’s performance and contribution is performed. The NRC had assessed the proposed candidates or retiring Directors’ quality and character as well as integrity, competency and commitment, and if they meet the fit and proper criteria set out in the Company’s Fit and Proper Policy, before recommending their appointment or re-election to the Board. The Fit and Proper Policy was last reviewed by the Board on 30 August 2024.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.3

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should provide justification and seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Board does not consider length of tenure as a criterion affecting a director's independence as there are advantages to be gained from the long-serving directors who possess good insight and knowledge of the Group's businesses and affairs. The Board has, concluded from its annual independence assessment that Dato' Nicholas John Lough @ Sharif Lough Bin Abdullah who has served as an INED for a cumulative term of more than 9 years has not been affected by his long tenure. He has demonstrated his ability to exercise independent judgement, provides objective views and acts in the best interest of the Company at all times. He also met the independence criteria set out in the MMLR. Hence, the Board is supportive of the recommendation of the NRC to seek shareholders' approval at the forthcoming AGM of the Company through a single-tier voting process.

Practice 5.4 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years without further extension.

Note: To qualify for adoption of this Step Up practice, a listed issuer must have a formal policy which limits the tenure of an independent director to nine years without further extension i.e. shareholders' approval to retain the director as an independent director beyond nine years.

Application	:	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	With a view to achieve a sustainable and balanced development, the Board recognises the importance of boardroom diversity and values the benefits that diversity can bring to the Board. The NRC is responsible for ensuring that suitable candidates are admitted to the Board. In recommending the appointment of Directors, the NRC will consider, among others, boardroom diversity including gender, age, cultural and educational background, ethnicity, professional experience, skills, knowledge and time commitment. An inclusive culture helps the Group to respond to increasingly diverse global customer base. All appointments will be based on merits, and candidates will be considered against objective criteria, having due regard for the benefits of diversity on the Board. The candidates are required to confirm that their number of directorships in listed issuers does not exceed 5, in compliance with Paragraph 15.06 of the MMLR, prior to their appointment as Director of the Company. The Board upon the recommendation of the NRC, evaluates and decides on the appointment of the proposed candidate to the Board. In terms of senior management and employees' employment, the Company considers all persons, regardless of age, gender, ethnicity, cultural background or other personal factors, with appropriate experience and qualifications will be considered equally when recruiting new staff. The Board, alongside the NRC, undertakes periodic reviews of the composition of the Board to ensure that they remain diverse. Based on the Board annual assessment for FY 2024, the Board concluded that the current Board composition consists of members that are of diverse and relevant range of skills, backgrounds, knowledge and experience to ensure effective

	governance of the business. The members of the Board contribute across industry knowledge, international experience perspectives and specific subject matter expertise in a range of strategic, operational and financial aspects that are critical to the long-term success of Scicom. The Board was also satisfied with the level of time commitment given by the Directors towards fulfilling their roles and responsibilities. As at the date of this report, none of the Directors of Scicom hold more than five directorships in listed issuer and no politician was appointed to the Board. The appointment of senior management falls under the purview of the CEO who is aware that a diverse workforce allows the Group to be competitive.

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

If the selection of candidates was based on recommendations made by existing directors, management or major shareholders, the Nominating Committee should explain why these source(s) suffice and other sources were not used.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The NRC is responsible for overseeing the selection and assessment for new appointments to the Board. The NRC identifies the set of skills and experience required and selects individuals to take Board positions on review of their individual merits, regardless of gender, race, religion and age. Besides the recommendation from the existing Board members, management and major shareholders, the Board also refer to the potential candidate from the industry taking into consideration the education, skills and experience background.
